EOA.P is an independent company specializing in Middle Eastern art in print. EOA.P is committed to supporting the careers of artists from the MENA region, and generating a sustainable income for the artists, their galleries and the non-profit work of Edge of Arabia. Since launching in 2011, EOA.P has published over 25 projects, many of which have been placed with important museums and private collections around the world.

EOA Projects is proud to present its first exhibition in a series of annual events dedicated to international fine art printmaking and collage. EDITION #1 brings together over 100 significant works on paper by 35 artists from Europe, America and the Middle East in a border-crossing show hosted in Edge of Arabia's new London Gallery. EDITION #1 aims to reach in line with Edge of Arabia's mission, EDITION #1 aims to reach out across geographical, political and religious borders, and in so doing share the artists' messages and visions with as wide an audience as possible.
